The Cercopithecus Ascagne «Red Tail» Monkeys :

Kiki : 1st orphan of the project. A year and a half old, he gets around very well when in the forest. Curious, engaging, he loves food and devours everything he finds!

Muké : Our 2nd orphan he is very protective, tough with a soft heart. He arrived in the camp very thin, thus his Ingala name (Muké = skinny). He has a dominant personality.

Joe : The only female of the group, she is substitute mother for all the new young ones. She knows how to deal with males and lovers playing in trees.

Inga : Tearful on arrival, he gained confidence thanks to Kiki. He is very close to his « captivity » companion, Sikila, who he loves to play with all day long.

Sikila : Wild, he almost never gets near humans and finds comfort being close to Inga with whom he was held captive. He is small but very lively.

Rambo : A young 5 year old male, he is comfortable in his rehabilitation enclosure that he doesn't like to share! Yet he plays the role of wise elder when interacting with the youngsters.

Wumba : A young male of 5, he was held captive with Rambo. He is a loner and doesn't seek contact with his enclosure mates. His past has had consequences and today he can only tolerate Kiki.

Bitumba : Held in a private home, he arrived at the age of 5 months already a warrior. He is very close to Kiki and acts as her bodyguard and companion.

Madesu : Our latest tiny arrival at the age of only 2 months, he loves beans, madesu, which is how he got his name! He is timid and is trying little by little to find his place in the group, helped along by Joe, his substitute mother.

The Chimpanzees :

Youyou : Freed from the Kinshasa zoo in March 2018, Youyou enjoys life. She is at ease everywhere. She's a great eater and appreciates her new rehabilitation enclosure.

Mongo : Freed from the Kinshasa zoo in March 2018 with Youyou, she is very joyous. Mongo is still very fearful and needs time to trust and needs attention to be reassured.

Mayele : Detained by a local sorcerer who made him drink and smoke, and dressed him like a child, Mayélé identified more as human than chimpanzee. But living with Mongo and Youyou has allowed him to slowly rediscover his chimpanzee instincts.

Elonga : Rescued from international trafficking in a very bad state of health, Elonga has regained confidence and now is curious about everything. He's a real rascal with his companions. He still has to wait to join the other chimpanzees in the rehabilitation enclosure.
